

Index

The italic letters f, n, and t following a page number indicate that the subject information of the heading is within a figure, note, or table, respectively, on that page.

- AACC. See American Association of Community Colleges
- Abt Associates, 77–78
- ACS. See Affiliated Computer Services
- Active labor market policies (ALMP), 246
- evaluating, 283*n*10
  - expenditures on, by selected OECD countries, 247*t*
  - in Hungary, 267, 268, 269
  - in selected OECD countries, 250–252
  - Western European model, 261
- Adult Education and Literacy training programs, 64*t*
- Advisory boards, 8
- AFDC Homemaker Home Health Aide Demonstration. See Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Homemaker Home Health Aide Demonstration
- Affiliated Computer Services (ACS), 164–165
- Age levels
- and incidence of employer-provided training in the United States, 226*t*, 228–229
  - and job-related training, in selected OECD countries, 255*t*, 256
  - JTPA participants, 15*t*
  - and training, in selected OECD countries, 253*t*
  - WIA participants, 314, 323*t*–324*t*, 325, 326*t*
- See also* Older workers; Youth
- Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Homemaker Home Health Aide Demonstration, 33, 35*t*
- ALMP. See Active labor market policies
- American Association of Community Colleges (AACC), 159
- AMU. See National Employment Training Board
- Antipoverty program with job training, 6
- Apprenticeship training, 58
- Germany, 262–264
  - Korea, 275
  - United Kingdom, 266–267
- See also* Vocational education training programs
- Baltimore Office of Employment Development, 295
- Basic skills training, 59
- JTPA vs. WIA, 109
- Basic training, employer-provided, 233
- Becker's theory of human capital, 212–215, 233
- Behavioral Foundation, 150–151
- Benefits
- and employer-provided training, 231*t*, 232
  - impact of Job Corps training on, 76
- Bush (George Jr.), Personal Reemployment Accounts proposal, 207
- CAEL. See Council for Adult and Experiential Learning
- California GAIN program, 86
- Canada, 269–271
- Industrial Adjustment Service (IAS), 280
- See also* OECD countries in sample
- Canadian Jobs Strategy (CJS), 270
- Career education system, 303–304
- Career Management Account (CMA) Demonstration, 118, 180–181, 295
- core measures, 131*n*21

- Case managers for WIA customer assistance role, 118–119 proposed legislation affecting, 126
See also Counselors
- CBOs. See Community-based organizations
- Certification of training providers, 154, 189, 304
 in Germany, 265
 recommendations about, 205
See also Credentials for job applicants
- CETA. See Comprehensive Employment and Training Act
- CJS. See Canadian Jobs Strategy
- Classroom skill training, 9
- Classroom soft skills training, 3*t*, 4
- Classroom training, 2, 58
 for disadvantaged populations, 68 effectiveness, 8
 gender differences in effects, 259
 for welfare recipients, 81, 82
- Clinton-era legislation, 11
- CLMS. See Continuous Longitudinal Manpower Survey
- CMA Demonstration. See Career Management Account (CMA) Demonstration
- Commission on the Skills of the American Workforce, 239
- Community-based organizations (CBOs), 160, 167, 168
 under CETA, 137
 reactions to WIA eligibility requirements, 123
 recommendations about, 307
- Community-based schools, 300
- Community colleges, 156–159, 167–168, 297, 298–299 effectiveness, for displaced men, 259
 recommendations about, 306–307
 that dropped out of WIA, 300
- Community service employment, training expenditures, 12*t*
- Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA), 7*t*, 8–9, 45, 290 compared with JTPA, 138 compared with MDTA, 137 training expenditures by federal government, 313, 316*t*–317*t*
 USDOL evaluation, 65–66
- Computer training, employer-provided, 233
- Consortiums of intermediaries, 147, 148
 definition, 170*n*16
- Constrained choice voucher model, 180, 186–187 alternatives to, 186, 187
 evaluation of, 185
- Consumer Report System (CRS), 121, 297 building, during ITA Experiment, 189
 local WIA implementation, pre-ITA Experiment, 193*t*, 197
 recommendations about, 205
- Continuous Longitudinal Manpower Survey (CLMS), 311–312
- Contracting out of job services, 138
- Contract training
 limitations, 103
 vs. individual referral systems, 138 vs. Individual Training Accounts, 107
 under WIA, 125
- Core service providers under WIA, 142*t*, 144*t*, 149–150
- Core services under WIA, 181
 rates of participation in 2001, 314, 323*t*–324*t*, 325*t*–326*t*
- Cost-based reimbursement schemes, 24–25
- Cost standards, 51
- Council for Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL), 161
- Counselors
 effects of levels of guidance provided by, 202

- influence on customer choice, 200
- ITA role, 178
- ITA services at local WIA sites, 190*t*, 191*t*, 194*t*–196*t*
- under JTPA, 179–180
- levels of guidance provided by, 185, 186, 187, 203–204, 292–294, 297
- struggle with being directive, 201
- See also* Case managers for WIA
- Counterfactual, in measuring training impacts, 67, 76
- Countries studied for this book. See OECD countries in sample
- CPS. See Current Population Survey
- “Cream skimming” or “creaming,” 9
- efficiency implications, 33, 34*t*–39*t*, 40
- evidence about, 47
- in Hungary, 268
- whether employment and training programs promote, 30–33
- under WIA, 116
- Credentials for job applicants, 304, 305
- See also* Certification of training providers
- CRS. See Consumer Report System
- Current Population Survey (CPS), 222*f*, 223, 241*n*5
- Customer choice and empowerment, 107, 201–202
- balance with counselor guidance, 203–204
- models for, 118, 180, 186–187, 292–294
- Customers
  - number enrolled in ITA Experiment, 184
  - rights, in regard to ITAs, 177–178
  - self-selection vs. selection by program staff, 31–32
  - targeted, by publicly funded job training programs in selected OECD countries, 276*t*–277*t*
  - which ones get served, 30
  - WIA staff assistance to, 118–119
  - See also* Customer choice and empowerment; Program participants in JTPA; Program participants in WIA
- Customer satisfaction
  - effect of vouchers on, 180
  - measures of, 28, 50
- Customized training, 3*t*, 59
- by LWIAs, 124, 125
- by states, 5
- under WIA, 181
- Data collection
  - by colleges, 158–159
  - and community college withdrawal from WIA, 300
  - JTPA vs. WIA, 28
  - needed, about performance management systems, 48
  - and reporting under WIA, 153–154
  - See also* Performance reporting requirements under WIA
- Data sources
  - difference in values maximized, 25, 33
  - disadvantaged populations, 312
  - dislocated workers, 312
  - employer-provided training, 59, 216–219, 220, 232, 236–237, 241*n*5
  - evidence of cream skimming in JTPA, 31–32
  - files at W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research, Employment Research Data Center, 315*n*2
  - ITA Study Tracking System, 199, 202
  - job training, 311–313
  - job training access, in selected OECD countries, 252
  - for selected OECD countries, 283*n*4, 283*n*5

Data sources (cont.)

- for studies of job training programs, 34*t*–39*t*, 154
  - on termination of JTPA program participants, 45–46
  - training in Europe, 283*n*11
  - welfare recipients, 81, 82–83, 84, 86
  - WIA training, 108
  - youth, 312
  - See also* Data collection; Research methods
- Decentralization of employment and training services
- Germany, 264–265
  - selected OECD countries, 276*t*–277*t*, 278
  - Sweden, 262
  - United Kingdom, 266
  - United States, 8, 10–11, 137, 271–273, 302, 303
- Democratic party policies. See Clinton-era legislation
- Demographic characteristics
- earnings impacts from major training programs, 69*t*–70*t*
  - and employer-provided training, in selected OECD countries, 255*t*, 256
  - and employer-provided training in United States, 224–229
  - of Job Corps participants, 75*t*, 76
  - of JTPA and WIA adult exiters, 115*t*
  - of JTPA participants, 318*t*–319*t*, 320*t*–321*t*, 322*t*
  - and likelihood of training, 60
  - of program participants in JTPA, 13, 15*t*, 16
  - and training, in selected OECD countries, 252–254
  - of WIA participants, 314, 322, 323*t*–324*t*, 325, 326*t*
  - See also* education levels; employment status; gender; men; race; women
- Directed choice model, 293–294
- Direct job creation programs, 4

Disabled populations

- ALMP expenditures on, by selected OECD countries, 247*t*
  - in JTPA and WIA, 115*t*, 116
  - targeted programs, 303
- Disadvantaged populations, 8, 9
- employer-provided training to, 224, 226*t*
  - evaluations of training for, 61–71
  - federal programs for, 21, 22
  - impact of publicly funded job training for, 281–282
  - impact of training on, 76
  - in JTPA, 318*t*–319*t*
  - in JTPA and WIA, 115*t*, 116
  - JTPA services to, 42, 43
  - training providers for, under JTPA and WIA, 300
  - See also* Hard-to-serve clientele; Low-income populations; Welfare recipients
- Dislocated workers, 9
- earnings impacts from major training programs, 69*t*
  - evaluations of training for, 77–79
  - in JTPA, 320*t*–321*t*
  - under JTPA vs. WIA, 314, 322*t*
  - targeted programs, 303
  - vouchers targeted to, 295
  - in WIA, 325, 326*t*
  - See also* Displaced workers
- Displaced workers
- effects of classroom training on, 259
  - programs, in selected OECD countries, 279–281
  - See also* Dislocated workers
- Earnings impacts
- by demographic groups for major training programs, 69*t*–70*t*
  - dislocated workers, 79
  - displaced men and women workers, 78
  - from hybrid program for welfare recipients, 85–86
  - Job Corps participants, 73, 75*t*, 76

- JTPA training participants, 68
  - long-term, JTPA training
    - participants, 72, 74*f*
  - long-term, welfare recipients under JTPA, 82
  - measuring, 24
  - by performance incentive, 43
  - single-parent welfare recipients,
    - from training, 84
  - welfare recipients, from JTPA training, 81
- Earnings levels
  - and incidence of employer-provided training, 224, 226*t*, 228
  - for JTPA program participants, 15*t*, 16
- Economic Opportunity Act, 6
- Economic self-sufficiency for welfare recipients, 80, 87
- Economies of scale in training, 162–167
- Education
  - difference from training, 2, 58
  - importance of, 281
  - in United States, 304
  - when training should be separate from, 279–280
  - See also* Literacy
- Educational assistance to employees.
  - See* Employer-sponsored educational assistance
- Educational institutions
  - funding of workforce development by, 299
  - public, 122–123, 138
  - role as training providers, 156–159
  - technical, 156–159
  - See also* Community colleges; Proprietary schools
- Education/employment programs for welfare recipients, 85–86
- Education-focused vs. employment-focused programs for welfare recipients, 85
- Education levels
  - adult exiters in JTPA and WIA, 115*t*
  - attained by WIA participants, 314, 323*t*–324*t*, 325, 326*t*
  - and incidence of employer-provided training in the United States, 224, 225*f*, 226*t*, 228
  - of Job Corps participants, 75*t*
  - and job-related training, in selected OECD countries, 255*t*, 256
  - of Korean workers, 274
  - and training of adults, in selected OECD countries, 253*t*, 254
- EI. See Employment Insurance
- Eligibility requirements
  - ETP list, 182
  - federal job training programs in the United States, 7*t*
  - ITA service providers, 120–123
  - ITP training participants, 191*t*
  - JTPA, 9, 31, 102
  - JTPA vs. WIA, 105*t*, 114
  - MDTA, 6
  - state and local WIA, 296
  - variations of state and local, 154–155
  - WIA core services, 149
  - WIA participants, 301
  - WIA training participants, 116–117, 181
  - WIA training providers, 153–154
  - WIA vs. JTPA, 105*t*, 114
- Eligible Training Provider (ETP) lists,
  - 178, 292, 297
  - adequacy of, 204, 205
  - conclusions about, 306
  - local WIA implementation, pre-ITA Experiment, 192*t*, 197
  - objectives of, 182
  - performance measures, 127
  - problems collecting data for, 158–159
  - relation to CRS, 183
  - requirements for inclusion on, 182

Employees

- amount of training received, 220–223
  - attrition, after training by firms, 213–214, 231*t*, 232, 237
  - funding of job training for, in selected OECD countries, 256–258
  - importance of education, literacy, skills and training, 281
  - job experience, and incidence of employer-provided training, 227*t*, 228, 229
  - job participation rates, in selected OECD countries, 254, 255*t*
  - mobility across firms in Japan, 273
  - turnover and training rates, 231*t*, 232, 237
  - types of training received, in selected OECD countries, 252–254
  - which ones receive most training, 214
  - which ones receive training, 223–229
  - See also* Employer-sponsored educational assistance
- Employer-provided training, 211–212
- 2001, 12*t*
  - in Canada, 271
  - data, 60
  - effect of technical change on, 215, 223
  - expectations of, 212–215
  - expenditures on, 59, 60–61
  - findings, and implications for policy, 238–240
  - in Hungary, 269
  - incidence, 219–220
  - incidence, by firm size, 59–60, 215, 229, 230*t*–231*t*
  - increase in, 59
  - intensity of, 220–223, 230*t*–231*t*, 232
  - in Japan, 272–273
  - limitations of, 282
  - in selected OECD countries, 257*t*,

258

- in Sweden, 262
- types provided, 233–238
- which workers receive, 223–229
- See also* Firm-specific training; Privately funded job training; Specific-skill training

Employers

- industrial and labor relations in Korea, 275
  - training needs, and JTPA, 102, 103
  - WIA emphasis on needs of, 303
- Employer-sponsored educational assistance, 224, 228–229, 233, 236–237
- tuition reimbursement, 237
- Employment and Training Administration (ETA), 317*t*
- evaluations of one-stop system, 140
  - Welfare-to-Work program, 139
- Employment and training laws, 5
- Employment and training model, Western European, 261, 282
- Employment and training policy in the United States
- demand-side strategies to supplement training, 91
  - emphasis on skill development, 245–246
  - evolution of, 302–303
  - future of, 307
  - training as a “hot-button” issue, 61–62
  - twenty-first century, 11–13
- Employment/Education programs for welfare recipients, 85–86
- Employment-focused vs. education-focused programs for welfare recipients, 85
- Employment impacts
- for Job Corps participants, 73, 75*t*, 76
  - by performance incentives, 43
  - from training, in United States and Europe, 259–260
  - for welfare recipients, 84

- Employment Insurance Act (Canada), 269
- Employment Insurance (EI), 270
- Employment Opportunity Pilot Project survey, 232
- Employment rates
 JTPA program participants, 15*t*, 16
 JTPA trainees, 319*t*, 321*t*
 WIA participants, 314, 323*t*–324*t*, 325*t*
- Employment Research Data Center at W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research, 315*n*2
- Employment Service (ES), 165–166, 167
 in Canada, 270
 coordination with JTPA, 138–139 expenditures, by selected OECD countries, 247*t* funding of, in selected OECD countries, 252
 in Germany, 263–264
 privatization of, 169*n*3 as service provider under WIA, 149–150 shift away from, 137–138
 in Sweden, 262
- Employment Service One-Stop Grants, 64*t*
- Employment status and funding of job training, in selected OECD countries, 256–258
 and training, in selected OECD countries, 252–254
See also Employees; Hours worked; Unemployed
- English-speaking limitations, JTPA and WIA adult exiters with, 115*t*, 116
- ETA. See Employment and Training Administration
- Ethnicity. See Race
- ETP lists. See Eligible Training Provider lists
- Europe
 training evaluation results for, 259–260
 Western European employment and training model, 261
 Western European employment and training systems, 282 youth training, 267
See also Germany; OECD countries in sample; Sweden; United Kingdom
- Evaluations
 ALMP, 283*n*10
 CETA, 8, 65–66, 290
 customer satisfaction, 50
 dislocated worker programs, 77–79
 Individual Training Accounts, 183
 Job Corps, 8, 73
 job training in the United States, 17, 90–91
 JTPA, 9–10, 26–27, 29–30
 nonprofit intensive service providers, 150–151
 publicly funded job training, 282–283 research methods used for, 66–67, 258–259 results of, from United States and Europe, 259–260 short-term, 86
 WIA training delivery arrangements, 296
See also Research methods
- Ex-offenders in JTPA programs, 15*t*
- Expenditures on job training. See Job training expenditures
- Experimental evaluations, 258
- FDDS. See Frontline Decision Support System
- Federal Employment Service (FES), 263–264
- Federal government of the United States principal-agent problem, 22, 23
 principal-agent problem solutions, 24–25

- role in employment and training, 305
  - role under WIA, 303, 304
  - See also* Intergovernmental relations
- Federal job training programs in the United States, 271–272
- Federally-financed job training in the United States, 5–11, 62–63, 64*t*, 65
  - See also* Funding of job training in the United States; Job training expenditures
- Financial support of Canadian Skills Development program
  - participants, 269–270
- Firm-based training. See Employer-provided training; Firm-specific training
- Firm characteristics, and likelihood of training, 59–60, 215, 229–232
  - German vocational training system, 264
- Firm-specific training, 57
  - See also* Employer-provided training; Specific-skill training
- Fixed-price contracts, 24
- Food Stamp Employment and Training program, 64*t*
- Formal training, 58
  - definitions, 216
  - employer-provided, 226*t*–227*t*, 230*t*–231*t*, 234*t*–235*t*
  - incidence, 219–220
- For-profit WIA service providers, 147
  - proprietary schools, 159–160
  - recommendations about, 307
  - See also* Affiliated Computer Services
- For-profit youth services providers, 152
- Free choice model, 292, 293
- Fringe benefits
  - and employer-provided training, 231*t*, 232
  - impact of Job Corps training on, 76
- Frontline Decision Support System (FDDS), 49
- Full-time workers, and incidence of employer-provided training, 227*t*, 228
- Funding of job training
  - in 2001, 12*t*
  - compared with need, 282–283
  - compared with welfare programs, 161
  - firm-specific vs. general, 57, 59
  - local WIA training funds, 296
  - major sources of, in Texas in 2001, 63
  - mixed, 51
  - organizations with diverse funding, 162–163
  - payment arrangements to training providers, 155–156
  - shift from place-based to people-based, 61
  - sources, in selected OECD countries, 256–258
  - sources of workforce development funding, 299
  - United States, compared with other OECD nations, 13, 14*t*
  - WIA, 111
  - WIA, as proportion of workforce services, 154
  - See also* Job training expenditures; Privately funded job training; Publicly funded job training
- “Gaming,” 43
- Gender
  - differences in effects of formal classroom training, 259
  - and funding of job training, in selected OECD countries, 257*t*, 258
  - and incidence of employer-provided training in the United States, 227*t*, 229
  - and job-related training, in selected OECD countries, 255*t*, 256
  - of JTPA participants, 318*t*, 320*t*, 322*t*

- and training, in selected OECD countries, 253*t*, 254
- of WIA participants, 314, 322*t*, 323*t*, 325*t*
- See also* Men; Women
- General training, 57, 212–215
- Germany, 261, 262–265, 280
  - See also* Europe; OECD countries in sample
- Goodwill Industries, 150–151, 163–164
- Government
  - action to promote employment in the United States, 5
  - industrial and labor relations of Korean, 275
  - See also* Federal government of the United States; Intergovernmental relations; Local governments; Publicly funded job training; State governments
- Governmental agencies as WIA service providers, 147
  - See also* Employment Service
- Governmental youth services providers, 152
- Government employment and training programs
  - in Canada, 270
  - effects of, 259
  - in Korea, 274
  - in United States, 271–272
- Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA), 25
- Hard-to-serve clientele
  - under JTPA, 15*t*, 43
  - Welfare-to-Work program, 139
  - under WIA, 114
  - See also* Individuals with special needs
- H1-B training program, 64*t*
- HCD. See Human capital development
- Hispanic youth, 76
- Hours of training
  - employer-provided, in selected OECD countries, 255*t*
  - employer-provided, in the United States, 220–223, 228–229
- Hours worked
  - following training by Job Corps participants, 73, 75*t*
  - and incidence of employer-provided training, 227*t*, 228, 229
- Human capital development (HCD)
  - approach, 62, 303–304, 304–305 “Human capital accumulation” programs, 86
  - for welfare recipients, 85
  - See also* Labor force attachment (LFA) approach
- Human capital investment
  - and job training, 58
  - in selected OECD countries, 256
- Hungary, 267–269
  - reason for inclusion in sample, 248
  - See also* OECD countries in sample
- IALS. See International Adult Literacy Survey
- IAS. See Industrial Adjustment Service
- ILA. See Individual Learning Account
- Incremental impact of training, 67
- Individual Learning Account (ILA), 295
- Individual referral systems, 138, 179
  - See also* Vouchers for job training; Individual Training Accounts (ITAs)
- Individuals with special needs, targeted programs for, 303
  - See also* Disadvantaged populations; Hard-to-serve clientele
- Individual Training Account/Eligible Training Provider (ITA/ETP) Demonstration, 140, 208*n*3, 296–297
- Individual Training Accounts (ITAs), 107, 177–179
  - alternatives to, 123–125
  - award amount caps, 201, 297
  - award amounts provided, 186, 187*t*, 190*t*

- choice in using, 300
- conclusions about, 306
- dollar and time limits, 119–120, 120*t*
- effect on prices of training, 300–301
- eligibility requirements for service providers, 120–123
- Individual Training Accounts (ITAs) (cont.)
  - establishment of, 181–183
  - exceptions to use of, 181
  - recommendations about, 306
  - soundness, 203–204
  - Study Tracking System, 199, 202
  - when required or not required, 295
  - See also* ITA Experiment; Vouchers for job training
- Industrial Adjustment Service (IAS), 280
- Industrial and labor relations in Korea, 275
- Informal training, 58
  - definition, 217
  - incidence, 219
- Informed choice model, 118, 293
- Institutional training. See Classroom training
- Intensive service providers under WIA, 142*t*–143*t*, 144*t*–145*t*, 150–152
- Intensive services under WIA, 181
  - rates of participation in 2001, 314, 323*t*–324*t*, 325*t*–326*t*
- Intergovernmental relations
  - federal job training programs in U.S., 7*t*
  - principal-agent problems in, 22–23
  - USDOL concern about states' monitoring of PBCs, 42
  - See also* Decentralization of employment and training services; Government Intermediaries
- Intermediaries
  - advantages of, in one-stop environment, 168
  - definition, 168*n*1
  - prior to WIA, 136–140
  - provision of services by, 167–168
  - responses to early WIA training experiences, 152–156
  - role in Welfare-to-Work programs, 139
  - types that emerged as WIA one-stop operators, 147–148
  - under WIA, 135–136
  - in WIA one-stop system, 140
  - See also* Consortiums of intermediaries; Service providers; Structured Employment Economic Development Corporation (Seedco); Subcontractors
- International Adult Literacy Survey (IALS), 252, 283*n*5, 285*n*6
- International perspective on employment and training policy, 246
  - See also* OECD countries in sample ITA/ETP Demonstration. See Individual Training Account/Eligible Training Provider (ITA/ETP) Demonstration
- ITA Experiment, 183–187
  - conclusions about, 306
  - future uses, 206–207
  - implementation, 197–199
  - local ITA models prior to, 188–189, 190*t*–196*t*, 197
  - localities participating in, 187–188
  - number of customers enrolled, 184
  - pilot site, 197
  - preliminary findings, 199–202
- ITAs. See Individual Training Accounts
- Japan, 272–273, 281
  - See also* OECD countries in sample
- Job classifications and skill training, 305
- Job Corps, 6, 8, 289–290
  - evaluations of impact of, 73, 75*t*
  - funding, 2001, 12*t*
  - reliance on military experiences, 90
  - studies of, 34*t*, 38*t*

- Job experience, and incidence of
  - employer-provided training, 227*t*, 228, 229
- Job Opportunities in the Business Sector (JOBS), studies of, 34*t*
- Job placement, 302
  - by community college systems, 157–158
- Job Search Assistance (JSA)
  - evaluation, 78–79
  - in selected OECD countries, 279–280
  - in United States and Europe, 260
  - for welfare recipients, 81, 82
- Job Service. See Employment Service
- JOBS. See Job Opportunities in the Business Sector
- Job training
  - access, in selected OECD countries, 252–258
  - ALMP expenditures on, by selected OECD countries, 247*t*
  - as-last-resort, 89
  - defining, 304–305
  - definition, 2
  - difference from education, 2, 58
  - effectiveness of, 87–88
  - effect of counseling on training rates, 202
  - evaluating, 90–91
  - international experience with, 245–246
  - objectives for, 58
  - purpose, 2
  - what counts as, 113–114
  - when it should be separate from education, 279–280
  - WIA focus on, 108–114
  - See also* Funding of job training; Job training expenditures; Job training programs; Job training types
- Job training delivery
  - changes in, from 1960s, 302
  - WIA development of, 296
- Job training expenditures
  - by governments, in selected OECD countries, 11–13, 14*t*
  - per participant for major training programs, 69*t*–70*t*
  - private and public training, 59, 60–61
  - public training, by selected OECD countries, 246, 247*t*
  - U.S. government, for JTPA, 313, 316*t*–317*t*
  - See also* Funding of job training; Privately funded job training; Publicly funded job training
- Job Training Longitudinal Survey (JTLS), 312
- Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), 7*t*, 9–10, 138–139, 290
  - data collected under, 49
  - design, 25
  - federal government expenditures on training, 313, 316–317*t*
  - goals, 22–23
  - impacts on welfare recipients, 80–82
  - limitations, 102–103
  - long-term impacts, 71–72
  - performance-based contracting, 41–43
  - performance standards system, 26, 49–50
  - studies of, 37*t*, 39*t*
  - training under, 313, 318*t*–319*t*, 320*t*–321*t*, 322*t*
  - vouchers, 294–295
  - vs. WIA training, 314, 322*t*
  - which customers got served, 30, 31
  - WIA changes from, 28, 103–104, 105*t*–106*t*
  - WIA training differences from, 109–110
  - See also* Program participants in JTPA
- Job Training Partnership Act/Standardized Program

- Information Report (JTPA/SPIR), 108, 311, 312
- Job training programs characteristics of local WIA, pre-ITA Experiment, 190*t*–196*t*
 evaluating, 86
- Job training programs (cont.)
 expenditures, 2001, 12*t*
 federal U.S., 7*t*
 key features of, in OECD countries in sample, 276*t*–277*t* lack of coordination among, 102 length of participation, JTPA and WIA, 109–110, 117, 129*n*12
 long-term impacts, 47
 measuring impacts, 24–25, 34*t*–39*t*, 66–67
See also Eligibility requirements; Individual Training Accounts; Job training types; Training centers; Training providers
- Job Training Quarterly Survey (JTQS), 312
- Job training services under WIA, 143*t*, 145*t*, 152–161
- Job training types, 2, 3*t*, 7*t*, 57, 58–59 received by JTPA participants, 318*t*, 320*t*, 322*t* received by WIA participants, 314, 322*t*, 323*t*, 325*t*
- JSA. See Job Search Assistance
- JTLS. See Job Training Longitudinal Survey
- JTPA. See Job Training Partnership Act
- JTPA/SPIR. See Job Training Partnership Act/Standardized Program Information Report
- JTQS. See Job Training Quarterly Survey
- Korea, 265, 273–275
 reason for inclusion in sample, 248
See also OECD countries in sample
- Labor force attachment (LFA) approach, 62
 earnings impacts, 85
 for welfare recipients, 86–87
See also Human Capital Development (HCD) approach
- Labor force status. See Employees; Unemployed
- Labor market information (LMI), 293, 305
- Labor market intermediaries. See Intermediaries
- Labor market policy. See Active labor market policies; Passive labor market policies
- Learning and Skills Council (LSC), 265
- LFA approach. See Labor force attachment approach
- Literacy
 Adult Education and Literacy training programs, 64*t*
 importance of, 281
 International Adult Literacy Survey (IALS), 252, 283*n*5, 285*n*6
 and the labor market, 256
- LMI. See Labor market information
- Local advisory boards, 8
- Local governments
 power to limit WIA training, 181
 role in WIA, 119–120
See also Intergovernmental relations
- Local training centers. See Service delivery areas (SDAs); Workforce investment boards (WIBs)
- Local workforce investment areas (LWIAs), 110–112 approaches to youth services delivery, 151–152 balancing of competing objectives by, 125–126 commonalities across ITA Experiment programs, 197–198 differences across ITA Experiment

- programs, 198–199
  - ITA Experiment participants, 187–188
  - models prior to ITA Experiment, 188–189, 190*t*–196*t*, 197
  - number of, 170*n*12
  - role in WIA training, 295, 296
  - soundness of ITA approach for, 203–204
  - training programs, 143*t*, 145*t*, 152–161
  - use of Employment Service, 149
  - use of non-ITA alternatives, 124
  - See also* Workforce investment boards (WIBs)
- Lockheed Martin IMS. See Maximus and Affiliated Computer Services
- Long-term impacts for welfare recipients in JTPA, 81–86
- Long-term unemployment in selected OECD countries, 248–250
  - Hungary, 267
- Low-income populations, 6
  - in JTPA and WIA, 115*t*, 116
- LSC. See Learning and Skills Council
- LWIAs. See Local workforce investment areas
- Manpower Development and Training Act (MDTA), 6, 7*t*, 136–137, 289
  - federal government expenditures on training, 313, 316*t*–317*t*
  - studies of, 34*t*
  - types of training supported, 58
- Mathematica Policy Research, 78
- Maximus, 147
- MDTA. See Manpower Development and Training Act
- Men
  - disadvantaged adult, 67–68, 318*t*
  - displaced workers, 78
  - earnings impacts from major training programs, 69*t*, 74*f*
  - effective forms of training for, 259
  - employer-provided training, in selected OECD countries, 253*t*
  - employer-provided training, in the United States, 227*t*, 229
  - impact of JTPA, 10
  - impact of JTPA training, 72
  - JTPA participants, 318*t*, 320*t*, 322*t*
  - training, in selected OECD countries, 253*t*
  - WIA participants, 322*t*, 323*t*, 325*t*
  - See also* Gender
- Minority groups, JTPA services to, 42, 43
- NAFTA training expenditures. See North American Free Trade Act training expenditures
- National Employer Survey (NES), 216
- National Employment Service, 270
- National Employment Training Board (AMU), 262, 280
- National Evaluation of WtW Strategies (NEWWS), 82
- National Household Education Survey (NHES), 217
- National Job Corps Program. See Job Corps
- National JTPA Study, 29–30, 45, 49
  - findings from 1986 to 1993, 71
  - results for disadvantaged youth, 68
- Neighborhood Youth Corps Out-of-School Program, studies of, 34*t*
- NES. See National Employer Survey
- New Jersey UI Reemployment Demonstration, 78
- NEWWS. See National Evaluation of WtW Strategies
- NHES. See National Household Education Survey
- Nonexperimental evaluations, 258
- Nonprofit intensive service providers, 150–151
  - to youth, 167
- Nonprofit one-stop operators, 147

- See also* Goodwill Industries
- Nonprofit schools, 300
- Nonprofit service providers, Seedco
  - assistance to, 166–167
- Nonprofit training service providers, 160–161
  - recommendations about, 307
- Nonprofit youth services providers, 152
- North American Free Trade Act (NAFTA) training expenditures, 12*t*, 64*t*
- Occupational categories of jobs and training
  - JTPA participants, 318*t*, 320*t*
  - WIA participants, 314, 323*t*, 325*t*
- Occupational safety training, employer-provided, 233
- Occupational skills training, 2, 3*t*, 59
  - JTPA vs. WIA, 109
- OECD countries in sample
  - commonalities in training among, 278–279
  - countries selected, 248
  - cross-country trends in job training access, 252–258
  - displaced worker programs, 279–281
  - evaluations of employment and training services in, 259
  - job training expenditures, 13, 14*t*
  - key features of job training programs, 276*t*–277*t*
  - labor market expenditures, 247*t*, 251*t*
  - unemployment and long-term unemployment rates, 248–250
  - See also* Europe; names of individual countries
- OJT. See On-the-job training
- Older workers
  - CSE training expenditures, 12*t*
  - JTPA services, 42, 43
- One-stop operators under WIA, 141, 142*t*, 144*t*, 147–148, 167
  - economies of scale, 163–164
- One-stop service delivery
  - in Germany, 264
  - and JTPA eligibility restrictions, 102
  - number of centers, 170*n*12
  - proposed reforms, 126
  - rise of, 139–140
  - types of WIA services by intermediaries, 140
- On-the-job training (OJT), 2, 3*t*, 58, 304
  - for disadvantaged populations, 68
  - effectiveness of, 8, 259
  - for welfare recipients, 81, 82
  - under WIA, 181
- Outcome-based performance measures, 51
- Part-time workers, and incidence of training, 227*t*, 229
- Passive labor market policies, 246
  - in Canada, 270
  - expenditures by selected OECD countries on, 247*t*
  - in selected OECD countries, 250
- PBCs. See Performance-based contracts
- Pell Grants, 61
- Performance-based contracts (PBCs), 24, 41–43
- Performance incentives
  - based on short-term outcomes, 25
  - effects on delivery of services, 40–41
  - effects on SDAs and WIBs, 29
  - effects on services provided, 40
  - effects on subcontractors, 41–43
  - effects on who gets served, 30, 32–33
  - strategic responses of training centers to, 43–47
- Performance indicators system used in Hungary, 267
- Performance management systems
  - data needed on, 48–49
  - effects, 29–33, 40–47
  - empirical studies, 34*t*–39*t*

- in federal programs for
    - disadvantaged, 21–22
  - history, 25–28
  - ideal, 49
  - purpose, 22–25
  - recommendations about, 47–51
  - relation with performance-based
    - contracting, 24
    - research needed on, 48–49
- Performance Measurement and Management (PM&M) system, 166
- Performance measures
  - JTPA, 26–27
  - outcome-based, 51
  - in studies of job training programs, 34*t*–39*t*
  - WIA, 27–28
- Performance reporting requirements
  - under WIA, 153
  - recommendations about, 205
  - See also* Consumer Report System; Data collection
- Performance standards systems
  - effect on services provided, 47
  - JTPA, 9
  - JTPA and WIA, 49–50
  - negotiated vs. model-based, 28, 50–51
- Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act, 158, 159, 299
- Personal Reemployment Accounts (PRAs), 207
- Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Act (PRWORA), 11, 139
- PES. See Employment Service
- PICs. See Private industry councils (PICs)
- Placement. See Job placement
- Portland, Oregon program, 85–86, 295
- Postemployment training, 3*t*, 4
- Poverty, training as a vehicle for
  - escaping, 80, 87
- PRAs. See Personal Reemployment Accounts
- Pre-vocational services under WIA, 130*n*15
- Private industry councils (PICs), 7*t*, 8, 138
  - relation with one-stop consortiums, 148
- Privately funded job training
  - expenditures, 60–61
  - expenditures, relative to government expenditures, 246
  - in Hungary, 269
  - on-the-job, 2
  - See also* Employer-provided job training; Job training expenditures; Publicly funded job training
- Private sector
  - provision of publicly funded job services, 136–137
  - role in public training programs, 282
- Privatization of job training, 291–292
- Program evaluations. See Evaluations
- Program participants in JTPA
  - characteristics, 115*t*
  - choice of training when not counseled, 179–180
  - concurrent participation in WIA, 127–128
- Program participants in JTPA (cont.)
  - demographic characteristics, 13, 15*t*, 16, 318*t*, 320*t*, 322*t*
  - earnings rates, 15*t*, 16
  - employment rates, 15*t*, 16
  - formal enrollment of, 43–44
  - termination decisions about, 44–47
- Program participants in WIA
  - characteristics, 115–116, 314, 323*t*–324*t*, 325*t*–326*t*
  - concurrent participation in JTPA, 127–128
  - concurrent participation in Wagner-Peyser, 128
  - length of time before training received, 117

- price for training, 300–301
- prioritizing of eligible groups, 126–127
- services actually received, 109–110
- See also* Customers
- Proprietary schools, 122–123, 159–160, 297, 299–300
- PRWORA. See Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Act
- Public educational institutions, 122–123 under CETA, 138
- Public Employment Service (PES). See Employment Service
- Publicly funded job training
  - amount spent by Japanese, 273
  - crucial design features, 282
  - effect on disadvantaged workers, 281–282
  - evaluating, 282–283
  - in Hungary, 268–269
  - in selected OECD countries, 251*t*, 252, 258–260
  - supportive services for participants, 4
  - in United States, 5–11, 62–65, 271–272
  - vouchers, 2
  - See also* Employer-provided job training; Job training expenditures; Privately funded job training
- Publicly funded labor market measures in selected OECD countries, 250, 251*t*, 252
- Public Service Employment (PES), 7*t*, 9, 290
- Qualifying training, 58
- Quasi-experimental evaluation methods, 66
- Race
  - and incidence of employer-provided training, 227*t*, 229
  - of JTPA participants, 15*t*, 318*t*, 320*t*, 322*t*
- JTPA services to minority groups, 42, 43
- of WIA participants, 314, 322*t*, 323*t*, 325*t*
- Reagan-era legislation, 9
- Reemployment bonuses, evaluation of, 78–79
- Regional approach to training provision, 155
- Regional Training Centers (RTCs), 268, 269
- Remedial training, 3*t*, 4
  - employer-provided, 233
- Representation for constituencies, 8
- Republican party policies. See Bush (George Jr.), Personal Reemployment Accounts proposal; Reagan-era legislation
- Research methods
  - effects of compensation on performance, 41
  - evaluating training, 258–259
  - evidence of cream skimming, 30–32
  - experimental evaluations, 66–67
  - ITA Experiment, 184–185, 197–199, 206–207
  - per-participant vs. per assignee impacts, 66–67
  - See also* Data sources; Evaluations
- Return on investment for training, 51, 186–187
- RTCs. See Regional Training Centers
- SDAs. See Service delivery areas
- Seedco. See Structured Employment Economic Development Corporation
- SEPT. See Survey of Employer-Provided Training
- Service delivery
  - duplication, 6, 10
  - market-oriented mechanisms for, 89–90
- Service delivery areas (SDAs), 23

- effects of performance management, 47
- Service providers
  - economies of scale and, 162–167
  - ITA eligibility requirements, 120–123
  - from JTPA under WIA, 148
  - recommendations about WIA, 306–307
  - utilized by 16 local workforce investment boards, 142*t*–146*t*
  - WIA certification, 189
  - See also* Intermediaries; Subcontractors; Training Centers; Training providers
- Services
  - customer use of voluntary, 201–202
  - design of, 90
  - local WIA, pre-ITA Experiment, 190*t*, 191*t*, 194*t*–196*t*
  - offered under JTPA, 40
  - postprogram, 90
  - received by adult exiters, WIA and JTPA, 110
  - WIA vs. JTPA, 105*t*–106*t*
  - See also* Customers; Job training; Tiered service model
- Service strategies
  - choosing among, 126
  - impacts for welfare recipients, 81–86
  - Individual Training Account design and administration, 202–205
  - using a mix of activities, 84, 85
  - See also* Job training programs
- Short-term job readiness training, 4
- Short-term outcomes from training
  - relationship with long-term impacts, 47
- Single parents
  - data source definitions of, 130*n*18
  - impact of publicly funded job training, 281–282
  - impact of training for, 84
  - JTPA and WIA exiters, 115*t*, 116
- SIPP. See Survey of Income and Program Participation
- Skill level of workers
  - importance of, 281
  - in selected OECD countries, 256, 258
  - and training received, 60, 214
- Skills Development program in Canada, 269–270
- Skills training, 58
  - for dislocated workers, 79
  - employer-provided, 233
  - by Job Corps, 76
  - new job classifications and, 305
  - recommendations about, 282
- Soft skills training, 304
- Specific-skill training, 212–215
  - employer-provided, 233
- Staff. See Case managers for WIA; Counselors
- Standardized Program Information Report. See Job Training Partnership Act/Standardized Program Information Report (JTPA/SPIR)
- Standards
  - cost, 51
  - for job applicants, 304, 305
  - See also* Certification of training providers; Performance standards systems
- State-financed training programs, 63, 65
- State governments
  - concern about loss of training providers under WIA, 153–154
  - customized training by, 5
  - discretion, in JTPA system, 26
  - funding for job training, 2001, 12*t*
  - implementation of CRS and ETP lists, 297
  - initial interpretation of WIA, 301
  - power to limit WIA training, 181
  - requirements for WIA training providers, 122
  - recommendations to, concerning ITAs, 204–205

- role in WIA, 62–63, 65, 119–120
- role in WIA training, 295–296
- WIA training responsibilities, 182–183
- See also* Intergovernmental relations
- Structured Employment Economic Development Corporation (Seedco), 161, 166–167
- Student aid, 61
- Study Tracking System for ITA, 199, 202
- Subcontractors, 41–43, 47
  - See also* Intermediaries
- Subsequent eligibility for WIA service providers, 121–123
- Survey of Employer-Provided Training (SEPT), 59, 216–217
- Survey of Income and Program Participation (SIPP), 59, 218
- Sweden, 261–262, 280
  - See also* Europe; OECD countries in sample
- TAA. See Trade Adjustment Assistance
- TANF. See Temporary Assistance for Needy Families
- Targeted training, 7*t*
  - drawbacks, 102–103
- Technical colleges, 156–159
  - See also* Vocational education training programs
- Technological change, and rates of employer-provided training, 215, 223, 233
- TECs. See Training Enterprise Councils
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), 11, 302
  - training program, 64*t*
- Tenure length of workers, and incidence of employer-provided training, 227*t*, 228, 229
- Texas
  - availability of WIA training providers, 153, 300
  - funding sources for training, 63, 154
  - See also* Affiliated Computer Services (ACS)
  - Texas Worker Adjustment Demonstration, 77–78
  - Tiered service model
    - distinguishing between tiers, 113–114
    - evaluation of, 77–78
    - in Japan, 281
    - WIA, 104, 107
  - Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA), 12*t*, 64*t*
  - Training center employees
    - effects of performance management on, 47
    - technical efficiency of, 40–41
    - See also* Subcontractors
  - Training centers, 143*t*, 145*t*
    - responses to performance incentives, 43–47
    - See also* Job training
  - Training Enterprise Councils (TECs), 265
  - Training providers
    - certification, 154
    - local/state variation in eligibility requirements, 154–155
    - loss of, under WIA, 153–154
    - more and less proactive WIA, 297
    - types of, 156–161
    - WIA, 292, 298–301
    - See also* Eligible Training Provider (ETP) lists; Training center employees; Training centers
  - Training vouchers. See Vouchers for job training; Individual Training Accounts (ITAs)
  - Tuition reimbursement to workers by employers, 237
  - UI. See Unemployment Insurance (UI)
  - Unemployed
    - direct job creation programs, 4
    - in JTPA, 15*t*

- in JTPA vs. WIA, 115*t*
  - training for, in selected OECD countries, 253*t*
- See also* Dislocated workers; Displaced workers
- Unemployment Insurance (UI), 5–6
  - in Canada, 270
  - timeliness standards, 50
- Unemployment rates in selected OECD countries, 248–250
  - Hungary, 267
  - in relation to active labor market policies, 252
  - United States, 313, 316*t*–317*t*
- Union presence, and likelihood of training, 230*t*–231*t*, 232
- United Kingdom, 265–267
  - See also* Europe; OECD countries in sample
- United States
  - comparative rates of training, 60
  - federal job training programs, 271–272
  - job participation rates of employees, 254, 255*t*
  - OECD countries compared to, 248
  - private vs. public training expenditures, 246
  - rank in spending on job training, 13, 14*t*
  - See also* OECD countries in sample
- Universal access under WIA, 301
- Upjohn Institute for Employment Research,
  - Employment Research Data Center, 315*n*2
- Urbanization, and choice of ITAs, 300
- U.S. Department of Labor
  - concern about states' monitoring of PBCs, 42
  - data, 311
  - evaluation for dislocated workers, 79
  - formal evaluation of vouchers under JTPA, 294–295
  - recommendations to, 48–51
  - review of CETA, 65–66
  - training programs, 306
  - See also* Career Management Account (CMA) Demonstration; Employment and Training Administration (ETA); Individual Training Account/Eligible Training Provider (ITA/ETP) Demonstration
- Vendors. See Service providers
- Veterans in JTPA programs, 15*t*
- Vocational and Technical Education Act (Carl D. Perkins), 158, 159, 299
- Vocational education training programs, 64*t*
  - by Hungarian government, 269
  - in Korea, 274–275
  - for welfare recipients, 85
  - See also* Apprenticeship training; Proprietary schools; Technical colleges
- Vocational rehabilitation training programs, 64*t*
- Voluntary welfare-to-work programs, 83
- Vouchers for job training, 2, 3*t*
  - alternative delivery mechanisms, 291
  - definition, 291
  - designs, 292–294
  - early evidence from WIA, 295–297
  - effectiveness, prior to WIA, 294–295
  - effect on CBOs, 160–161
  - evaluating, 184
  - President Bush's proposed, 207
  - prior to WIA, 179–181
  - purpose of, 291–292
  - rationale for, 178
  - technology used for, 188–189
  - See also* Constrained choice voucher model; Individual Training Accounts (ITAs)
- Wages, effect of employer-provided training on, 215
- Wagner-Peyser Act, relation with MDTA, 137

- Wagner-Peyser enrollees, concurrently participating in WIA, 128
- Wagner-Peyser funding consolidating, with WIA funding, 126 effect on WIA training, 111
- WBLA. See Work-Based Learning for Adults
- WBTP. See Work-Based Training for Young People
- Welfare receipt reductions, 81, 83
- Welfare recipients, 6, 9
 CBO training programs, 161
 Clinton administration policies, 11
 earnings impacts from major training programs, 69*t*–70*t*
 evaluations of training for, 79–87
 in JTPA and WIA, 115*t*, 116
 JTPA services to, 42–43
See also Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Act (PRWORA); Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF); Welfare-to-Work programs
- Welfare reform, 62
- Welfare-to-Work programs
 Employment and Training Administration (ETA), 139 evaluations of, 79–87 study of, 36*t*
- W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research,
 Employment Research Data Center, 315*n*2
- WIASRD. See Workforce Investment Act Standardized Record Data
- WIA. See Workforce Investment Act
- WIBs. See Workforce investment boards
- Women
 CETA impact on, 8
 disadvantaged adult, 67, 68, 318*t*
 displaced workers, 78
 earnings impacts from major training programs, 69*t*, 74*f*
 effective forms of training for, 259
 employer-provided training, in selected OECD countries, 255*t*
 employer-provided training, in the United States, 227*t*, 229
 impact of JTPA, 10
 impact of JTPA training, 72
 JTPA participants, 318*t*, 320*t*, 322*t*
 JTPA services to, 15*t*, 42, 43
 WIA participants, 322*t*, 323*t*, 325*t*
See also Gender; Welfare recipients
- Work-based learning, 89
- Work-Based Learning for Adults (WBLA), 266
- Work-Based Training for Young People (WBTP), 266–267
- Worker Profiling and Reemployment Services (WPRS), 150
- Work experience, 2, 3*t*, 4 effect on training for welfare recipients, 82, 83
- Work-first approach, 62, 89, 301
 for dislocated workers, 77–78 impact over time, 86
 and WIA training, 109
- Workforce development agencies,
 funding of workforce development, 299
- Workforce development strategies, 62, 89–90
- Workforce intermediaries. See Intermediaries
- Workforce Investment Act Standardized Record Data (WIASRD), 65, 108, 311 year 2000 data, 130*n*13
- Workforce Investment Act (WIA), 7*t*, 10–11, 11, 101, 290–291 amendment to, 126
 changes from JTPA, 28
 choice of job training under, 291–297
 core measures, 131*n*20

- core theme, 17
- cost conservation emphasis, 108–109
- eligibility provisions, 114, 301
- eligible population actually enrolled, 32–33
- emphasis on private sector needs, 303
- features meriting attention, 88–89
- federal government expenditures on training, 313, 316*t*–317*t*
- federal government role, 303
- funding of workforce development, 299, 301
- importance of training in, 62
- intermediaries, 135
- key provisions regarding training, 102–110
- performance management system, 49–50
- performance management system standards, 27–28
- principal-agent problem, 22, 23
- recommendations about, 89–90
- return on investment focus, 51
- shifts in services over time, 112–113
- studies of one-stop system, 140
- tension between goals, 125
- training program, 64*t*
- training providers under, 298–301
- vs. JTPA training, 314, 322*t*
- which customers get served, 30
- See also* Local workforce investment areas; Program participants in WIA
- Workforce investment boards (WIBs)
  - discretionary powers, 141
  - effects of performance management, 47
  - ITA issues, 183
  - mix and utilization of intermediaries, by sixteen, 142*t*–146*t*
  - number of, 7*t*
  - payments to training providers by, 155–156
  - research needed, 48
  - waiver to deliver direct services, 150
- Workforce investment system in the United States, 136
  - economies of scale, 162–167
- Workplace behaviors, 4
- WPRS. See Worker Profiling and Reemployment Services
- YOU, 150–151
- Youth
  - ALMP expenditures on, by selected OECD countries, 247*t*
  - data sources, 60
  - disadvantaged, 68
  - earnings impacts, from JTPA training, 68
  - earnings impacts, from major training programs, 69*t*
  - impact of JTPA training, 72
  - impact of publicly funded job training for, 281–282
  - improving impacts for, under WIA, 90
  - incidence of employer-provided training, 226*t*, 228–229
  - JTPA vs. WIA programs for, 151
  - student financial aid, 61
  - training impacts under JTPA, 76
  - United States vs. European training for, 259–260
  - WIA performance measures for, 28
  - WIA subgroups, 94*n*24
  - See also* Youth training programs
- Youth service providers under WIA, 143*t*, 145*t*, 152–161
  - intermediaries, 167, 168
- Youth training programs, 3*t*, 4–5
  - in Europe, 267
  - See also* Job Corps